You both are bearing a heavy burden as the crisis deepens. The issues we are considering are matters of life and death, and have serious implications for the welfare of the United States and our allies. But the burden is not yours alone. Congress also plays a role in deciding on the response to a crisis that might involve American forces. It is vital for all of us to understand the choices before us, and, if possible, to reach agreement about how to proceed. I remain deeply concerned about the path the administration appears to be taking in Bosnia. I have consistently said that U.S. military intervention is to be avoided. There could be no Western-imposed military solution to this conflict between ancient enemies with deep historical, cultural, and religious hatreds. Mr. Secretary, you and other officials from the Defense Department have briefed us several times on Operations Plan 4104, NATO's plan to withdraw U.N. forces from Bosnia, if it becomes necessary. I believe most members of Congress support this plan. If implemented, we understand it would be a NATO operation, with no dual-key command arrangement, and with sufficient force to deter or defeat any attempt to interfere. It would be limited in scope to getting all U.N. troops out of Bosnia. However, last week in Colorado, President Clinton seemed to propose an additional NATO mission to assist...
