Excerpt from Enchanting Pathways Chum or two let s take a-jaunting Where the best of chums would go; Tried and true, and found not wanting - Just such chums you ve had, I know. Hey there, Chuck and Tobe and Skinny, Join us in our good-luck song - Fish for whales and catch a minny - Ask yer maws, and come along. Home-spun garb with threadbare patching - Hearts in rhyme with all glad things; Eyes and ears alert for catching Tune with woodland wilds and wings. Round the hill and up and over; Down the slope beyond the ridge; Passed the meadow s honeyed clover, To the brookside and the bridge. Out with boy-made fishing-tackle, For a try at yonder bend; While the cook-fire faggots crackle, And the smoke-ring curls ascend. Near the hedge the wild-rose blushes, Daisies smile and thistles sway; Clarion orioles and thrushes Sing a thousand songs a day. And the pranks of shag-dog Rover, With his bow-wow monolog - Search the big, wide world all over - What s so playful as...
