

Phonecall in the Rain (Hardback)

By Irine Lum Asanji Aka Lia

Xulon Press, United States, 2011. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Combining personal experience and inspiration from the Bible, Phonecall In The Rain offers a series of reflections on various themes ranging from love, giving and forgiveness, to faith, courage and pride. Originally published as extended reflections on an electronic discussion group for Christians, the reflections are aimed at enabling Christians to build a meaningful relationship with God by understanding God's truth and power, and by seeing Jesus as an everlasting Redeemer. The author discusses - sometimes in a very outspoken way - issues and social problems of our time that have prevented God's children from achieving the great favours ordained for them. Irine Lum Asanji (aka LIA) is a freelance writer and journalist based in Brampton, Canada. Born in Cameroon to late Rev. Joseph Asanji and Phoebe Asanji, LIA immigrated to Canada in 2006. She holds an undergraduate degree in Journalism and an M.Phil in Anthropology. She worked as Journalist and Communication Officer with the Presbyterian Church in Cameroon. She is a born again Christian who has done ecumenical activities in Cameroon and internationally. In...
