This groundbreaking book convincingly explains why a Learning Community Pedagogy (LCP) is a critical supplement to traditional teacher-student relation-ships. Based on a participatory democratic learning dynamic, LCP empowers both professor and student to discover themselves as present to one another, which generates freedom--an informing principle of the Learning Community. Through LCP, classroom participants are specifically liberated through dynamisms unleashed by the following four assumptions: (1) The world is in a state of profound crisis that requires critical thinking to inform decisions neces-sary for human survival in freedom and dignity; (2)

Humans must place their primary faith in intellect as an evolutionary capacity that is potentially uni-versal when liberated from the separate pasts of disparate groups; (3)

Intellect is the primary path toward imagining and conceptualizing a future that all can see, collectively, as Our Future ; (4) LCP focuses on empowering the young to describe their world to themselves and others, have faith in the intellectual possibilities of all humans, and reference their world to a sharable global future. A major thesis of the book,...
