Food First Books, Canada, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Food Movements Unite! Strategies to transform our food systems The present corporate food regime dominating the planet s food systems is environmentally destructive, financially volatile and socially unjust. Though the regime s contributions to the planet s four-fold food-fuel-finance and climate crises are well documented, the solutions advanced by our national and global institutions reinforce the same destructive technological path, the same global market fundamentalism, and the same unregulated consolidation of corporate power in the food system that brought us the crisis in the first place. A dynamic global food movement has risen up in the face of this sustained corporate assault on our food systems. Around the world, local food justice activists have taken back pieces of the food system through local gardening, organic farming, community-supported agriculture, farmers markets, and locally-owned processing and retail operations. Food sovereignty advocates have organized locally and internationally for land reform, the end of destructive free trade agreements, and support for family farmers, women and peasants. Protests against--and viable alternatives to--the expansion of GMOs, agrofuels, land grabs and the oligopolistic control of our food, are...
